Model #  MPR

Name: Rail Changer

Designed to meet rail positioning requirements. The MPR allows the moving of new rail from embankments onto ties, positioning of running rails, and track shifting after new rail is fastened down. When three MPRs are used together rail transposition can be performed.

Options include a turntable and off-tracking device.