Model # SPR

Heavy-duty, multi-spindle, rail sawing and drilling machine designed for machining rails up to 154 pounds in rail electric welding and reclaiming plants, as well as in the steel mill industry. The rail clamping system fastens rail very near to saw blade and drill bit tools, keeping rail straight in machine for accurate cutting and drilling with a single operator. Alternative configurations and options are available.